MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN BROADCASTING CORPORATION SOC LTD BILL, 2021

1. BACKGROUND AND CURRENT REGULATORY FRAMEWORK

1.1. The Broadcasting Act, 1999 (Act No. 4 of 1999) was promulgated in 1999 to regulate the whole broadcasting sector in South Africa.

1.2. In 2005, the Electronic Communications Act, 2005 (Act No. 36 of 2005) was assented to by the President of the Republic to converge the regulation of the broadcasting, broadcasting signal distribution and telecommunications sectors.

1.3. As a result, the regulation of broadcasting services was incorporated under Chapter 9 of the Electronic Communications Act.

1.4. Consequently, the Broadcasting Act was reserved to regulate the South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC) even though it was never expressly specified in terms of the legislation.

1.5. To this end, certain provisions of the Broadcasting Act such as the Preamble, Object of the Act and Chapters II, III and IX were not amended as a result of an oversight.

1.6. In light of the above and other reasons, such as the alignment with legislative developments and giving effect to court judgments, the review of the Broadcasting

Act is necessary. This legislative intervention seeks to address the following:

- (a) Alignment with the provisions of the new Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008);
- (b) Alignment with the certain provisions of Public Finance Management Act of 1999;
- (c) Give effect to the recommendation of the Ad Hoc Committee on the SABC Board Inquiry by the National Assembly;
- (d) Proposed areas of amendment as recommended by the SABC; and
- (e) To give effect to the judgments in the following cases:
 - (i) Dali Mpofu v SABC and Others
 - (ii) Mashangu Ronny Lubisi v SABC; and
 - (iii) SOS Support Broadcasting Coalition v SABC & Minister of Communications.

1.7. In compliance with section 11(3)(c)(iv) of the Companies Act, 2008, the Bill is named the “South African Broadcasting Corporation SOC Ltd Bill” and same will repeal the Broadcasting Act.

1.8. It must be noted that section 38 of the Broadcasting Act deals with the South African Broadcast Production Advisory Body and not the SABC and as a result this section will be inserted under Chapter 9 of the Electronic Communications Act.

4. CONSULTED PARTIES

- (a) Office of the Chief State Law Adviser;
- (b) Office of the State Attorney;
- (c) South African Broadcasting Corporation SOC Ltd;
- (d) National Treasury; and
- (e) Department of Monitoring and Evaluation.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

5.1. The draft Bill is expected to save the SABC almost R1-million in Board fees and related costs.

5.2. The costs to be incurred by the Department comprise of gazetting and limited travel during the provincial consultation process.

5.3. The estimated cost amounts to R250 000.00 and has been budgeted for.

6. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

6.1 The Constitution prescribes the procedure for the classification of Bills, therefore a Bill must be correctly classified so that it does not become inconsistent with the Constitution.

6.2 We have considered the Bill against the provisions of the Constitution relating to the tagging of Bills and against the functional areas listed in Schedule 4 (functional areas of concurrent national and provincial legislative competence) and Schedule 5 (functional areas of exclusive provincial legislative competence) to the Constitution.

6.3 The established test for classification of a Bill is that any Bill whose provisions in substantial measure fall within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution must be classified in terms of that Schedule i.e. Tongoane and Others v Minister for Agriculture and Land Affairs and Others Case CCT 100/09 [2010] ZACC

10. The process is concerned with the question of how the Bill should be considered by the provinces and in the National Council of Provinces. Furthermore, how a Bill must be considered by the provincial legislatures depends on whether it affects the provinces. The more the Bill affects the interests, concerns and capacities of the provinces, the more say the provinces should have on the contents of the Bill.

6.4 Therefore issue to be determined is whether the proposed amendments to the Act, as contained in the Bill, in substantial measure, fall within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution.

6.5 The Bill seeks to repeal the Broadcasting Act, 1999 (Act No. 4 of 1999), to regulate the continued existence of the South African Broadcasting Corporation SOC Ltd, to provide for its governance and staff and to provide for matters connected therewith.

6.6 In terms of the Bill the South African Broadcasting Corporation SOC Ltd, continues to exist as a Corporation, notwithstanding the repeal. The Bill also provides further that the continued existence of the Corporation does not affect—

- (a) the shareholding of the State in the Corporation;
- (b) any rights, assets, liabilities or obligations acquired or incurred by the Corporation before the commencement of this Act;
- (c) the validity of any act lawfully performed by or on behalf of the Corporation prior to the repeal;

- (d) the continued existence of the Board of the Corporation that managed the affairs of the Corporation immediately prior to the commencement of this Act; and
- (e) the terms and conditions of service of staff of the Corporation.

6.7 The proposed repeal and amendment of legislation is listed in the Schedule to the Bill to ensure that consequential amendments are addressed.

6.8 The provisions of the Bill have been carefully examined to establish whether, in substantial measure, they fall within any of the functional areas listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution.

6.9 In our view the subject matter of the proposed amendments does not fall within any of the functional areas listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution and it does not affect provinces whereby the procedure set out in section 76 of the Constitution would be applicable.

6.10 We are therefore of the opinion that since this Bill does not deal with any of the matters listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, it must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure set out in section 75 of the Constitution.

6.11 The Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), has been repealed by section 65 of the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act, 2019 (Act No. 3 of 2019) (“the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act”), which commenced on 1 April 2021. There are a few differences between the existing law and the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act as far as it concerns the referral of Parliamentary Bills to the National House. In terms of section 18 of the current Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), which Act has been repealed by the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act, the Secretary to Parliament has to refer all Bills pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities to the National House for comments before it is passed by the house of Parliament where it was introduced. The National House of Traditional Leaders had 30 days from the date of such referral, to submit any comments to Parliament.

6.12 Section 39(1) of the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act which applies from 1 April 2021, still refers to Bills pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities, but extends it to include Khoi-San communities and also Bills dealing with local government matters. Furthermore, the National House will in future have 60 days to provide the Secretary to Parliament with its comments on Bills referred to it. There is however also an obligation on the National House to respond to the Secretary to Parliament, even if the House does not have any comments on a Bill.

6.13 Section 39(1) of the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act reads as follows:

“Referral of Bills to National House

- 39. (1) (a) Any Parliamentary Bill—
- (i) which directly affects traditional or Khoi-San communities or pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional or Khoi-San communities; or*
 - (ii) pertaining to any matter referred to in section 154(2) of the* Constitution,

must, in the case of a Bill contemplated in subparagraph (i) and may, in the case of a Bill contemplated in subparagraph (ii), before it is passed by the house of Parliament where it was introduced, be referred by the Secretary to Parliament to the National House for its comments.

(b) The National House must, within 60 days from the date of such referral, make any comments it wishes to make and submit such comments to the Secretary to Parliament: Provided that the National House may refer any such Bill to any provincial house for comments: Provided further that if the National House has no comments on any Bill referred to it, the National House must inform the Secretary to Parliament accordingly.”

6.14. Taking into account the above, we are of the opinion that there is no need for a referral of the Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders as it contains no provisions pertaining to customary law or the customs of traditional communities as envisaged in section 39(1) of the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act.
